New York Election.

We have not yet the full returns of the New York election, but sufficient is known to warrant the assertion that Mesers, Cook, Ulman, and Fitzhugh, the Whig candidates for Treasurer, Attorney General, and Canal Commissioner, are certainly elected—thus securing the Canal Board, and of course a substantial victory. The Evening door-nal and Aryse, agree in this statement. The Argas claims the election of Johnson, Stories, and McAlpine, the loco foco candidates for Judge State Prison Impector, and Surveyor. The vote on Secretary of State and Comptroller is see close that nothing but the offic al returns can decide the matter; and, indeed, from the tone of the Journal of the 10th, it would not surprise us to hear that a majority of the location ticket is elected.

As to the Schate, the latest figures are from the Farwell, N. Y. Times and Trillion of the 11th. The former | Uphano, figures up 19 Whige and 14 Locos elected, and the latter claims the election of 16 Whigs only as as ce-tained. The last advices are favorable to the election of Mr. Phara, in the Oswero and Madison districts; Judge Musson, in the Delaware and Scobaric district (he goes into Scobarie with 300 majority :) and Mr. BENEDICE, in the Westchester district. If the Whigs have two out of the three, they are sure of a majority.

The House is also in doubt: the Times claims Crawford,

66 Whig Assemblymen, but other papers are not we wang sine, and the result is doubtful. As there is no law against hoping, we still entertain and express the conviction that our friendin New York, despite the most astounding treachery where they had a right to expect good faith have six out of the eight State candidates, and both Homes of the Legislature, by small majori-

THE SENAIR--The Argus includes to the opinion that the Whiges will have a majority in the Senate. The latest intelligence elects Eli W. to-rets, Domocrat, in the 14th, and Thessbore H. Henseliet, Whig, in the 7th Senate District-leaving the 17th, or Delaware District, alone in doubt. If these returns prove correct, the Democrats elect fourtien, and the Whigs seventeen members of the Senate—leaving one to be heard from.

DAILY SENTINEL.

The Detroit Advertiser brings the following particulars of the nutriler on the steamer Globe at

Marking:

Buttal and Unprovoken Munder.—A most aboking number was committed on Sunday night upon the steamer Globe, which for reckless wantoness and brutality is almost unparalleled.

Edurad Kassay, the wretch by whom the act was committed in an Irishmen, who resides at Grand Rupids in this State and went on board the Globe at a passenger at Chicago. Reliating to pay his fare, he had some difficulty with the officers of the beat, and exinced a disposition to pay his fare, he had some difficulty with the officers of the beat, and exinced a disposition to make trouble; and smoon other things he perdicted in going into the engine room and interfering with the engine.

He had been repeatedly ordered away by the sugmeers and others about the engine, but still persisted in doing sa. When just before midnight on Sanday, he came into the engine room, while the Globe was lying at Mackinae, and repeated his offence and was ordered away by Thos. Commiss laid hands upon him and attempted to put him out, but in deducts or received a stab in the groin, which striking the bone glunced off. Cumning clinched with the nam, and while in that position, Sanutel Robinson, first emplayer of the Globe, came from the Sontherner which was lying alongside, and just as he reached the men, and before he had done or said anything, he received a stab from Kenney's bowie knife, which penetrated his heart, causing death in less than 5 minutes.

DEATH OF GARDINER HOWLAND.-The New York Express of Monday in t, thus notices the death of this old and much esteemed New York

He attended church in the morning, at Dr. Pott's, in his usual health. At the close of the services, while in conversation, he expressed grief at thedecesse of Dr. J. K. Redgers who expired the same morning, and had scarcely reached his residence on the North side of Washington square, before he gave evidence of suffering severe pain in the region of the heart, and almost instantly expired. Mr Howland has for many years been an eminent merchant of the firm of G. G. & S. Howland & Aspinwall. Some time since, he retired from active business; but he still continued to be largely interested in the financial projects of the day, and always we believe with advantage to his already prosperous fortunes. His mercantile reputation both for ability and integrity were sven more envisible than his large wealth. Mr. Howland in early life married a daughter of Mr. Edgar. Esq. and a few years since, his second wife, Miss Meredith of Baltimore. He has left a widow and several children to mourn his loss, and to inherit his large fortune.

The firm of G. G. & S. Howland went in business and to inherit his large fortune.

Women or Unters From Wisconsin!—The young State of Wisconsin, is one of the most democratic in the true sense of that much missued term, of any in the Union—meet to Vermont, perhaps the most so. Hitherto, she has been ruled entirely by the party which lives on the Democracy, who elected in 1849 the present Governor, Nelson Dewey, by a majority of 1932 over the votes of both the Whig and Free Soil enablants: added mostler. But then the party was avovedly on the tries and rice soil channels acces to together. But then "the party was arrowedly on the Free Soil platform, where it had stood since the organization of the Sinte. This year, by way of preparation for the Fresidential canvass at hand, they discarded this platform and adopted the Baltimore instead. The telegraph brings us the result of this experiment—the election of L. J. Farwell, a Free Soil whig, for Governor, by some 1500 majority, with a Whig and Free Soil Legislature.—N. Y. Trib.

Exernant Dean.—The Elephant "Columbus," attached to the menagerie of Raymond & Co., and Herr Driesbach, died at Lenox in this county, on Saturday. He is supposed to be one hundred years old.

Columbus is said to have been the leavest ared years old.

Columbus is said to have been the largest and most valuable steplant in the United States. His weight was five tons, and he was valued at $115,100.

A destructive fire broke out, shortly after midnight Saturday week, in the extensive shoe store of O. R. Ramedell & Co., on Main st., which, with Cameron's dry good store adjoining, was entirely consumed. Mr. Ramedell's loss on his stock is $5,000, with insurances for $17,000, as follows:—5,500 in the North-western Company; $3,000, Merchant's Moual; $2,500, Buffalo Mutual; $2,000, Empire State; and $4,000 in two Hartford companies. Mr. Cameron's loss is 2,000, covered by insurance. The buildings were insured in the Genesse Mutual and Merchant's Mutual, for $1,000 each. The origin of the fire is unknown.

The New Orleans Picayune of the fith, has full details of the battle of Matamoras. It says, the fighting within the city of Matamoras still continued when the Fanny left. The adverse forces having been engaged with little intermission for more than a week, Carrengal was advancing upon the west side of the town; and on the 30th little was within four squares of the Plara, where Gen. Avales had his beachquarters. Here the latter was posted with eight or nice pieces of Artillery, so disposed as to cover each other. The Revolutionary leader had but a single piece, and was doubtless fighting his way from house to house.

Caravajal removed headquarters from Fort Parades to the Market place and within the rearportion of the town. At the outset of heatilities, Gen. Avalos had called upon the National Guard and all citizens, to turn out for the common defeace. This order was refused—troops were subsequently raises!

It is reported that the shipments of specie this week will reach nearly $1,000,000.

By advices from Havana to the 1st inst., we have a confirmation of the account of the arrest of Mr. Thrasher's brother. Mr. T. was still closely confined in a Pinta. It is now said that an original letter was found in his office which implicates gevenal in the late boxille expedition against the Lalands. There are no many contradictory rumors relative to this affair that it is impossible to get at the truth.
